A MESSAGE FROM YOUR EXALTED RULER, LOU VALENCIA

Additional growth of our Lodge continues. I would like to mention some items we have been working on and recently accomplished. Brandon Elks Lodge Logo has been designed and voted on by our members, and pins will be available for purchase very soon, as well as matching patches for shirts, hats, visors or any item you would like a Brandon Elks Lodge patch on, are also in the works.

On a community level, our lodge supports some great organizations, such as A Kids Place, the Dover Patriots, others to come once we work the details out.

Fraternally Yours, Lou Valencia, Exalted Ruler

Brotherly Love; Feeling For Humanity, Having Compassion, Being Tolerant, accepting, Forgiving.

Diligently conscientious: of one's work or duties, showing care, protective, guarding, keeping someone safe.

Hello PER's!

It's time to mark your calendars for lunch again. The date to save is October 9th, and yes, it is a Thursday, at 11:30. We will be going to Canopy Road Cafe located at 10254 Causeway Blvd in Shoppes at Causeway Plaza. Heading west on Lumsden/Causeway after you cross over Faulkenburg it should be on your right, the north side on Causeway. This is a new place for us, so I hope it's good. Big menu lots of choices. Everyone enjoyed their lunch last month and I know I would go back to Duke's Brewhouse. Thanks to all the PERs that were able to come. Hope to see you at Canopy Road Cafe. Bye for now

BLOE BITS

Next Meeting is
OCTOBER 6TH @ 7:00 PM
Hoping to See You There!

September was a busy month beginning on the very first day with the Labor Day picnic cake auction. So many yummy, homemade baked goodies were donated. Thanks to all who donated, attended, and purchased the baked goods.

The day after was our September meeting where we honored Mary Lou Schreck as our Lady of Distinction for the month.

Congratulations Mary Lou for receiving this well-deserved honor. On September 10, we enjoyed watching the movie Breakfast at Tiffany's which helped us get into the mood for our upcoming fashion show to be held on October 4. Thank you, Ed, for always setting up and taking down the projector and screen.

The ladies' breakfast was September 14, and Jane Gilblair drew winners for the beautiful baskets that she created. Thank you, Jane for your hard work and dedication to our lodge.

I cooked the Wednesday night dinner on September 17. Those that attended were able to enjoy a taste of Thanksgiving early.

The Florida Lady of Elks conference followed that where we spent a beautiful weekend in Daytona Beach at the Hard Rock Hotel. Thank you, Nickie Wells, Nancy Price, Jane Gilblair, and Connie Poague, for joining me at this conference.

Another successful card bingo event was held on September 22. I really enjoy watching all these folks having fun at these games. A big thank you to my husband Ed for calling every time we hold this event.

We had two large catering events this month. Thank you to Mary Lou Schreck for hosting the event on September 20 while I was away. We have an ongoing raffle from now till October 12. Buy your Wine and Dine tickets for only five dollars. Proceeds will be going to a Christmas party for the children at A Kids Place. By purchasing a ticket, you will be a part of giving these children, a joyous Christmas. And you may even win a wine dinner for 2. Thank you everyone for your support.

Brandon Ladies of Elks Lady of Distinction SEPTEMBER

The lady selected for this month has been an invaluable member of the Brandon Ladies of Elks for countless years. Throughout her time with the organization, she has been a steadfast volunteer, always ready to help and especially renowned for her culinary talents. Her reputation as a cook is well-established at the lodge, and she has prepared meals for numerous catering events. She has cooked so many Wednesday Night Dinners that she likely holds the standing record. She also took part in last year's basket competition and is already prepared to step in for catering again this month. She has held several offices within the BLOE, including serving as President. She also supported her husband during his tenure as a former Exalted Ruler by acting as a gracious hostess. Her presence is consistently felt at social events—she's a regular at card bingo and often brings guests to Bunco nights. She is truly irreplaceable. As Secretary of the Brandon Elks, she is the first welcoming face members see when they enter the lodge, always greeting everyone with a warm smile. Please join us in congratulating Mary Lou Shreck as the September Lady of Distinction for her unwavering commitment, enthusiasm, and service to our organization.

ATTENTION: RV STORAGE LOT OCCUPANTS

Anyone that has a vehicle, boat, RV or trailer in our storage area needs to contact me immediately. If not me, give all of this information to our Secretary, Mary Lou. I am trying to complete our list of who has reserved a spot in our storage area. I need your name, address, telephone number, email, type of storage vehicle (make and model), the site you are currently parked and the date you are paid up. There are numerous vehicles, RV's and boats that do not have any identification on them (i.e., license plates). I have documented several vehicles that have some type of ownership identification with their storage vehicle/RV/boat. Please email me with this information as soon as possible. Once all of this information is gathered and recorded, the site you paid to reserve will be your permanent site. Any vehicle/RV/boat that remains unclaimed/undocumented after a grace period will be towed off property at owners' expenses. We cannot have undocumented property in our storage area. I urge you to contact me.

Thank you.
